

HERMANOS UNIDOS

Hermanos Unidos UCSB Newsletter Jan. - Mar. 2018
Edited by Cristobal Caballero, Webmaster

HU NATIONAL CONFERENCE 2018 @ SF

This year, San Francisco State University hosted an excellent conference. The workshops were very interactive, the speakers motivational, and the Hermandad strong. It was very obvious that every person there was having a great time learning about their communities and bonding with their Hermanos.

The drive up to SF was itself an event. We left Santa Barbara at 1 AM with 3 vans and several cars packed full of Hermanos. One pit stop half-way through and some red bulls later, we arrived at SF State in just under 6 hours. It was beautiful weather, and we were all very excited to get the day started. After getting our bearings, we walked into the school and were the first Familia there. Front row seats awaited us as we watched the opening ceremony and ate the delicious breakfast.

The workshops themselves were very engaging. They ranged from resumes to personal worth to how we can build a better HU. Our members were very excited to attend as many as they could, and it was an amazing feeling watching all the new members start to make connections with Hermanos from other schools. Conference is one of the few times our members are provided with a space to easily network and make professional connections, so we made sure they took advantage of the opportunities at hand.

The competition for Herman was strong this year. Our team practiced for weeks leading up to the event, and they put in a lot of work in being the best team they could be. In the end, however, we lost in the third round to UC Berkeley, who then went

HU MEMBERS OF THE MONTH: JANUARY

New Member:

Daniel Padilla, 1st Yr Transfer

Daniel has been an excellent member since first joining this year. He finds joy in helping others and doing community service, so obviously he does a lot of it ! Were excited to see how this individual grows and matures into the success we know he will be.

Returning Member:

Marco Madriaga, 4th Yr

Marco has always been someone to give his time to HU whenever he can. He has been very involved in both our major and minor events, and he never slacks in accumulating all his hours. He especially put in work for this years LAN by being

